

School Accountability Committee Member Application

While all community members are welcome to volunteer and provide input to the School Accountability Committee (SAC), only four (4) parent positions and one (1) community member position are available on the committee. The Board of Directors or a sub-committee appointed by the Board will be responsible for SAC member selection. SAC members will have final decision-making authority on and responsibility for the stated duties¹ of the committee.

Please tell us more about yourself and your interest in the SAC. Required information is marked with an asterisk(*).
